SENIORS

ALICE "INKY" ANDERSON—"I have a heart with room for every joy."

Alice is secretary of the Commercial Club and editor of the "Tattle Tale" and "Alumni News" of the "Conradian." She has a very pleasing and easy-going disposition; however, she doesn't "click" with "government," so she says.

DOROTHY ARMSTRONG—*"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a jolly good fellow in every way."*

Dot is treasurer of the W. A. A. She is also a member of the Journalism Club, and the girls' hockey and basketball teams. She enjoys all sports and would like to be a gym teacher.

LEVIRT ATKINSON—*"A jolly disposition and a carefree mind,
A nicer girl you will never find."*

Treasurer of Commercial Club; former member of the Oread Club and Personality Club. Likes children and enjoys "taking dares." Dislikes sitting still. The Journalism members will surely miss her cheerful help in typing their news.

ANN BARNES—"She has a voice of gladness and a smile."

A participant in dramatic plays and a member of the Dramatic Club. Dislikes going to school. She enjoys swimming, dancing, and eating. Plans to be a typist in the future.

PAUL BARTELS—"Silence is the mother of truth."

Paul is secretary of the F. F. A. and a member of the mixed chorus. He is greatly interested in science. His ambition in life is to go to college and be an agricultural resource worker or a teacher of agriculture.

EVELYN BAUMGARDT—"A maid, lighthearted and content."

Evelyn is a member of the Oreads, Dramatic Club, and a singer in our choruses. She took part in the junior play. Evelyn is very much interested in reading and listening to good music. She has a knack for drawing, likes to dance and watch people. She hasn't made up her mind about the future.

JEANNE BENSON—"A girl whom you like at first sight and who improves on acquaintance."

Who would believe that such a "wee lass" would have so much force? By her notes she keeps the Oreads straight on what they have been doing. Jeanne is taking the heart of a promising young tenor. I wonder if she writes to him "en francais"? I'm sure he hopes not. Very active in the French Club, Jeanne should have plenty of French experience.

GEORGE BERRY—"Look! He's winding up the watch of his wit. By and by he will strike."

We shall always remember George for his ability to successfully carry out our social activities. His greatest interest is archery and he really is quite an expert at it. He hopes to secure a position as an apprentice in pattern-making. Good luck, George.

RAYMOND BLACKSON—*"Where am I going? I don't quite know.
What does it matter where people go?"*

An exception to the rule "brains and beauty travel far apart." A member of the Honor Society, Orchestra, President of the French Club, member of the Student Council, and an ultra-dramatic individual. Favorite expression: "Neat, ain't it?"

BETTY BOULDEN—"She hath a natural wise sincerity."

Wouldn't we like to see Betty on a horse? That's her favorite hobby. She is a member of the Oread Club and the Dramatic Club. She likes sports, hot dogs, and sour pickles. (What a combination!) Her dislikes are solid geometry and carrots. Betty plans to enter a business school in the fall.

FLORENCE BOWEN—"The workings of her mind and heart, none can tell."

Florence is vice-president of the French Club, a member of the Oread and Journalism Clubs. She likes baseball, volley-ball, music, and dancing. She probably will work and go to business night school.

ELLEN BOWMAN—"Pleasant, poised, and practical."

Ellen is a member of the Commercial Club and an active participant in all sports. Post-graduation activities will include going to Beacom's and then finding a position.

CONSTANT BRIGGS—"Why work when one can play the noisy clown?"

A very "active" senior—the "Peter Pan" of his class. "Connie" hoped to be a football star, but about 22 others had the same idea before him. A very tuneful whistler—his vibrating tones echo through "ye old halls" many afternoons.

ANN BRINTON—"Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful at all times."

Ann is an old standby in the Cercle Francais and a dependable worker for social functions. Likes: cooking and sewing. Dislikes American Government. As a future, Ann plans to let cupid to take its hand and unite her in matrimony.

NAOMI BROOKS—"A quiet mind is richer than a crown."

The Oreads and Commercial Clubs are pleased with her presence. Her "likes" are music and tap dancing; dislikes homework and Sociology. Wants to be a secretary.

MARTHA BROWN—"Just a dear little, sweet little, good little girl."

Martha, our diminutive senior, participated in such diversified activities as the Glee Club, and girls' tumbling team. Her hobbies are knitting and sewing. (A good start, Martha!) Her immediate plan, however, is to attend college.

MARY BULLEN—"A sweet girl with a sweet way."

Mary is a very busy young lady. She is the treasurer of the senior class. (We wondered where Earl was getting all of his money for dates); vice-president of the Dramatic Club, member of the Oread Club, and a member of the Cercle Francais. She also took part in the class play. Her interests are dancing—especially tap—and Earl. She dislikes solid geometry.

VIRGINIA CARUCCI—"A little dark-haired, black-eyed, likeable miss."

Virginia belongs to the Glee Club and the Commercial Club. She took part in the junior minstrel and the candlelight service. Her likes are typing, short-hand, and dancing. Her ambition in life is to be a "stenog."

WILLIAM CLOUGH—"These delights if thou canst give, mirth, with thee I mean to live."

William is certainly well equipped to take care of himself. His chief interest is boxing. You had better watch your step, Bill. He plans to attend Goldey's for one year and then go to Delaware College.

FRED COMEGYS—"A boy without cares strolling on life's thoroughfares."

Fred, that "rollicking rogue from Richardson Park" was, for one year, manager of the baseball team and had two years of football. He participated in the junior minstrel and the senior play. We hand it to you, Fred, and to your partner, Chick, for the original skits at the athletic rallies. He is art editor of our worthy "Conradian."

MARIE DEERY—"And her dark eyes!—how eloquent!"

Well! Marie certainly is going in for the higher things of life. Some day in the near future, she hopes to be an aviatrix. She goes on further to say that she especially dislikes cooking and sewing. Sorry you weren't a boy, Marie.

MARIAN DOOLITTLE—"A girl who is fond of fun, study, and looks."

Contrary to her name, Marian is a raging dynamo of power when it comes to working. A promising young business woman starting already on her business activities through the Commercial Club. She is among the seniors who will be leaving a "gap" in the Oreads.

CONNIE EWING—"None ever loved, but at first sight they loved."

President of Oread Club; member, Honor Society and Dramatic Club. When there's work to be done, our faithful standby, Connie, is very efficient. Likes hot dogs and sour pickles; dislikes spinach and mathematics. Plans to be a doctor.

EARL EWING—"Take everybody's advice; then do as you please."

Earl is a man of many jobs. They are: vice-president of the Senior Class, editor of the "Conradian," Student Council, president of the "Darnoc Dramatic Club," and football manager. Earl took an active part in the junior minstrel last year and in the senior class play this year. Earl is not too crowded for time that it affects his marks or his dates with Mary. He is interested in Civil Service Work for the future.

CHARLES GARRISON—"Pleasure and action make the hours seem short."

A future Deisel engineer—not even waiting for graduation to start his studying. "Dick" hopes to attend Hemphill Deisel College in New York. Don't forget to take your harmonica with you, Dick.

DONALD GOODEN—"He's clean, and keen, and straight."

Many football teams have gone home defeated lamenting their misfortune at playing against "giant" Don. The Commercial Club will be missing an able leader. I wonder if a certain senior ever helped him keep his business matters straight? (or other matters, too!) The cold cruel world is going to meet a boy capable of fighting his own way.

ALFRED GRAY—"In quietness and confidence shall be my strength."

The senior's strong, silent man. What an opening he is leaving in our band! It's going to be hard to get someone capable of "filling his shoes." You should accompany Gene into an African jungle, Al, and try your magic.

MILDRED GRIEST—"Coolness and absence of heat and haste indicate fine qualities."

Here's one of Conrad's best spellers. She is secretary and treasurer of the French Club, a member of the Oreads and was one of the representatives from Conrad at the spelling bee. She likes French, but dislikes solid geometry. She wants to become a secretary.

RAYMOND GROSE—"Why do today what you can put off until tomorrow?"

We are all looking forward with much enthusiasm to the day when Raymond will gain fame as a surgical doctor. In connection with his desired occupation, chemistry is his favorite subject. Incidentally, he forgot and told us that collecting locks of girls' hair was his favorite hobby. Is Raymond a ladies' man? We wonder.

PHYLLIS GUEST—*"We know her charming, but we know not half,
The charm her downcast modesty conceals."*

Quiet "Phil" takes a high place in the Commercial Club. Last year she participated in the commercial program assembly. She likes to dance, swim, play tennis, and go horse-back riding. Here's a hint—she dislikes conceited people. She plans to enter Beacom College.

MARGARET HALL—"The joy of youth and health her eyes displayed."

Peg is one of the few who dislikes Robert Taylor. She is an active member of the Camera Club and played on the senior basketball team. She likes cooking and all sports. Her ambition is to become a nurse.

GERTRUDE HAMILL—"True to her work, her word, her friends."

The demure little girl who helps keep the "Conradian" alive, blesses the Honor Society, Glee Club, Student Council, and Oread Club with her presence. We could never get anything on Gertrude pertaining to love. (But oh! how we tried!)

MARIAN HENDERSON—"Footloose and fancy free."

Marian is a member of the Commercial Club and the W. A. A. She is very active in all sports and particularly likes dancing. Dislikes "wheaties" and shorthand. Plans to work after graduating from school.

NORMAN JEDLICKA—"Made for the open spaces where men are men and women are few." (Better known to friends as "Spick"). Norman will always be remembered for his work with junior and senior social activities. He is an excellent archeryman and very hard to "beat." His main interests are hunting, fishing, trapping, and racing. He hopes to be a commercial air pilot. You had better keep two feet safely on the ground, Spick.

EVELYN JESTER—"In quietness and confidence shall be my strength."

Evelyn is interested in commercial work. She plans to attend Goldzey's next year. Incidentally, her greatest dislike is going to bed early. Can you imagine it?

GEORGE KAEHN—"Often he has burned the midnight oil, but not for study."

"Sugar," as he is known, is our famous quarterback and star forward in our fall and winter sports. George is a fun-loving lad and if you don't believe it just drop in on his chemistry lab class and find out. He likes to talk in study hall. His favorite saying is, "Watch out, boy." Favorite companion, Virginia Selby.

THELMA KAEHN—"She who does more things than one always finds time for fun."

A member of the Student Council and a participant in the commercial program last year. Thelma likes all sports and she has a special interest in blondes. For the future, she plans to go to New York and study dress-designing.

ELIZABETH KEIDEL—*"Hang sorrow, care will kill a cat,
And therefore let's be merry."*

Special interest: aviation and sports of all kinds. She dislikes to see girls smoke, and she doesn't care for dancing or fussy clothes.

JEANETTE LATTA—"Earnestness is the soul of work."

Jeanette, our brilliant senior who belongs to such exclusive organizations as the French Club, Oreads, and the Honor Society, spends her leisure time in reading, skating and dancing. She also likes accordian music and enjoys hiking.

LAWRENCE LEIGHTY—*"Let the world slide, let the world go,
A fig for care, and a fig for woe."*

"Bud" has been active in class productions, taking part in the junior minstrel and in the senior play. He plans to be a Deisel engineer after graduation from college. His especial interest is a likeable junior—Mary Gettz.

EUGENIA LINDELL—"A unique combination of nonsense, common sense, and a sense of humor."

Jean enjoys participating in dramatics and declamation contests. As a future, Jean plans to train at the Wilmington General Hospital. At present she is nursing Roy Barto's heart.

CARROLL LUCAS—"A fine combination of man and athlete."

Member of the F. F. A. and "fleet-footed himself to fame in the outer garden" for the Conrad baseball nine for two years.

BETTY MCCLOSKEY—"Here's a girl who likes to do many things and she does them well, too!"

One of the outstanding athletes of the senior class is our Betty. She belongs to the W. A. A., the Oread Club, and the French Club. She likes dancing and sports of all kinds. Her dislikes are home-work and Clark Gable. Betty is planning to attend Beacom's in September.

ROBERT MCCONNELL—"Come on, you 'hootenannies,' play the game."

Conrad's tall, lanky end on the gridiron. President, Senior Class; member of Honor Society, Student Council, Conrad's only three-letter man. Plans to do big things in the line of engineering. His Saturday night pipe and "his Polly" will long be remembered as his side attractions in his senior year. Dislikes painted finger-nails, Polly.

ROBERT MCMULLEN—"He has waves and ways that take with the maids."

One of the senior tennis flashes who excels in first year typing. Bob plans to own a big gasoline station so he can get free gas. Quote: "Nice idea if it works."

NORMAN NELSON—*"The man who wins is the man who works,
The man who toils while the next one shirks."*

If you have any metal work to be done, just call on Norman. He's quite good! He is also interested in radio and electrical work. His greatest dislike is home-work. That's all right, Norman, you're not alone.

MARIAN MOTE—"She is active, stirring, all fire; Cannot rest; cannot tire."

A tantalizing senior miss who is a promising dramatist. She is also a member of the Oreads—proving that "beauty and brains" do go together. The "Temple-ites" should be warned of her coming, don't you think?

PAUL MULLINS—"To have loved and lost is better than never to have loved at all."

Paul's special interest at present is to attend Annapolis and emerge as a naval officer. Likes thrilling detectives. Is the bully of the senior class. From where does he acquire all those compacts and tubes of lipstick?

VIRGINIA MUNCY—"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Three guesses why Virginia is interested in our baseball team! Virginia is a member of the Commercial Club and the Oread Club. She likes dancing and music. Her dislikes are history and government. Her plan for the future is to become a secretary. (Private at that!)

ELEANOR MUTSCHLER—*"Sweet as the primrose that peeks beneath the thorn,
Her modest looks a cottage might adorn."*

Eleanor, this little senior of pleasant face and manner, is a member of the Commercial Club. In the sport line, she likes volley-ball in particular. Eleanor says that one of her chief dislikes is getting up in the morning. For the future, Eleanor hopes to be somebody's stenographer.

WARNER NAUDAIN—"It's good to be merry and wise, It's good to be honest and true."

One of the seniors who has promises of high future—Duke University. Thought to be a confirmed bachelor until he tumbled for a blonde junior miss. Likes tennis and basketball; dislikes "cranks."

JANET NOREM—*"She seems as happy as a wave
That dances on the sea."*

Janet, that vivacious girl from Silview, is a member of the Athletic Association and the Journalism and Dramatic Clubs. She's got a pair of healthy lungs. Cheer leading proved that to us! Janet likes dancing and dislikes French. She plans to attend Women's College and major in home economics.

EDWARD O'NEIL—"There is nothing so becoming a man as modest stillness."

He enjoys working around airplanes and making miniature models. The way he vocals is nobody's business. Wrote several interesting articles for the "Conradian." His future plans are indefinite, but he contemplates going to college.

CARROLL PARKE—"One good turn deserves another."

Interested in journalism, Carroll was a staff member of the Con-Hi News and is now a reporter for the "Conradian." Many of the school's posters, cleverly designed, were the result of Carroll's artistic ability. On a date, Carroll is always eager to "keep his love warm."

JOSEPH PARKER—"A friend to all, an enemy to none."

Joe, our red-headed, freckle-faced lad, is one of the senior managers of the baseball team. Joe is a very quiet person, and as yet has not been known to indulge in the indoor sport of "necking."

LEWIS PARKER—*"He strives for honors—never to give in—
And in the race he always wins."*

President of Student Council; member of the Honor Society. A generous, willing, kind, and likeable disposition characterizes Lew. Lew's specialty: judging the femmes. He too, like his brother, looks forward to an engineering career.

SENIOR CLASS

LEROY PARKER—"I am myself; my own commander."

President of Honor Society; member of the Student Council. Roy and Lew, his twin, will long be remembered for the cheerful and untiring efforts exerted on most of the dramatic productions. Played guard on the school eleven for two seasons, as did his brother.

AUDREY PIERCE—"Joy is not in things; it is in us."

Better known from coast to coast as "Lil' Audrey." She was a former member of the Oread Club. "Jiggs", another nickname, delights in dispensing with much rhythmic "dancipation." Possessing a jolly, delightful disposition and all the attributes of a good sport, she wins and holds many friends.

MARGARET PIERCE—"A kindly smile to all she lent."

Peggy, another girl who is going to be a secretary for some business man, belongs to the Commercial Club and is a hearty and cheerful worker. Margaret dislikes "government" and enjoys dancing, swimming, and "dating."

ROBERT PIERCE—"Two heads are better than one."

Will long be remembered for the off-side penalties he received because of his elongated nostril. He and his stooge, Fred, provided Conrad and friends with unusual humor throughout the year. "Chick" has no definite plans for the future.

HELEN PIERSON—"She has two eyes, soft, brown—take care."

Member, Honor Society; Oread Club, and French Club. A leader in many of the school's foremost activities. Proud possessor of two irresistible brown eyes. (Ask any of the senior boys). Helen's pleasing, and loving personality will be a distinct attribute in her future work as a nurse.

VIVIAN PORTER—*"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
An amiable, jolly way she has."*

Cheerful Vivian always has a smile for everyone. She takes an active part in the Commercial Club and the Journalism Club. She likes dancing and sports. Her ambition is to become a secretary.

DORIS PYLE—"Good nature and good sense are usually companions."

Vice-president of the Commercial Club, member of the Journalism Club, and a member of the Oread Club. Doris likes reading, dancing, moving pictures; does not state any personal dislikes.

CLARA REED—"Her talents were of the more silent class."

Clara is interested in swimming, boating, and dancing. The Oread Club and Commercial Club include her among its members. She intends to go to Beacom's.

EDITH REED—"A brilliant mind and the will to work keep her at the top scholastically."

Among the members of the Honor Society, Commercial Club, and Oread Club, you will find Edith an active personality. Her role as Mrs. Phifer in the senior play shows that she has some talent. Quoting her, we find: "I am interested in reading, dancing, and movies. I hope to find a position in the business world working in an office."

WILLIAM REED—"When pleasure and duty clash, let duty go to smash."

Better known to friends as "Lil' Willie." Members of visiting football teams will remember him as the stone-wall half-back on the "dashing eleven" squad. I've been told he favors blondes. It may be a rumor, what's your guess?

MARY RICKLE—"Of all noises, I think music the least disagreeable."

Known by many things, especially her flaming red hair, which bedecks a valuable assortment of intellectual abilities. A member of the Honor Society, Oreads, and French Club. As a side-kick, she carries a violin around—the catch is that she really is a talented "fiddler."

ALLAN RIGGIN—"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

That entrancing male with the infectious laugh; also blessed with those helpful qualities termed "brains." He is active in the French Club, Honor Society, and Student Council. I am told he has a way with the girls, but I wouldn't know.

ADALINE ROSELLE—"A firm believer in the power of silence."

Active member of the Commercial Club. Plans to be charming secretary to some "big shot." Adaline's favorite "likes" are going to the movies and dancing.

THELMA SCHUELER—"When lessons and tasks are all done, She's always ready for a bit of fun."

Member of Oread Club, vice-president of Honor Society, and a standby in the French Club. As a future, Thelma plans to go to a business school and from there to become a secretary to some prominent executive. Likes very much to dance and attend surprise parties.

VIRGINIA SELBY—"A pleasant smile and a sunny disposition."

Virginia is president of the Girls' Athletic Association, and chosen to be our May Queen. Her special interests are George Kaehn and sports. She likes moving pictures and typing, but dislikes publicity and getting up in the morning. Virginia's favorite saying is "You're crazy." (George hears it most of the time). She would like very much to work in an office after graduation.

MARJORIE SHEETS—"Everything succeeds with people of sweet and cheerful disposition."

Marjorie secretaried for the Journalism Club, was a standby in the Dramatic Club, and a great help in the senior play. A very worthy and helpful aid to the "Conradian." She dislikes geometry and baseball. Plans to enter Delaware and become a teacher. "Someday, I hope to write a book," so says Marjorie.

THOMAS STAFFORD—"Diligence is the mother of good luck."

The pedestrian's friend—whose "flaming crown of glory" will grace rural landscape. He is planning to be an important "vertebrae" in the backbone of our country. Good luck, Tom.

HENRY SWEETMAN—"Men of few words are the best men."

Henry, that quiet boy, you know, is a member of the Commercial Club. His main interest is baseball, while his hobbies are reading and drawing. Henry's ambition is to become a business man. On the side-lines, he writes very good poetry, of which some appeared in the "Conradian."

WALTER TAPLIN—*"Beneath a quiet exterior,
A rich vein of humor."*

Walt, that serious senior, states that his special interests are brunettes. He likes football, baseball, ping pong, and "camels." His dislikes are school, physics, and English (incidentally he gets "A" in both subjects). Walter's ambition is to be "boss" or "president." P. S.: His greatest quality is laziness.

DAVID TAXTER—"Men are not to be measured by inches."

The little lad, who has led us long in cheers, persists in snapping pictures, at disadvantageous moments for the victim. Dave is active in the Honor Society, president of the Camera Club, and photographer for the "Conradian." Besides photography he is interested in chemistry and engineering.

ELVA TAYLOR—"Don't let your education interfere with your schoolwork."

Elva is one of our commercial students—a member of the Commercial Club. She likes music and dancing. However, we believe that she is somewhat interested in sports—at least, in those at Fort duPont.

JACK THARP—*"He has a smile, but never loses it,
A frown, but never uses it."*

The "Man Mountain Dean" of Conrad. As a particular interest, Jack enjoys good "modern" music. He plans to become an undertaker. Likes dancing and the girls, dislikes nothing in particular.

WILLIAM THOMAS—"True love never did run smooth."

The crooning member of the Student Council. Active in most of the dramatic productions given annually, Bill has a singing career to look forward to. Many a heart Bill has fluttered with his "icklings of sweet nothing." Recently was acted upon in a strange manner by a barber and consequently is now called "porky" or anything else relating to a "short bristled animal." Favorite expression: "Listen, don't believe him."

ELLA THOMASSON—"She's rather distant, almost aloof, but once the ice is broken, one finds a heart of gold."

Member of W. A. A., is interested in gym work. Ella's hobbies are dancing and swimming. She likes sports clothes and good food. Among her dislikes are grouchy people and frilly clothes. Plans for the future are "No plans, but plenty of hope."

WILLIAM TOLBERT—"He who respects others is respected by them."

The Commercial Club is honored by having Bill as one of its members. However, commercial work isn't his only ambition, he craves baseball. We could never get anything as to affections for girls on Bill, but "one never knows, does one?"

MARY VANNICOLA—"I argue you not."

A member of the Commercial Club. Especially likes to dance and play volleyball. Dislikes very much to sit home—a good time girl, I'd say. Plans to be a secretary.

EVA LEE VIGNEULLE—"Music when soft voices die, Vibrates in the memory."

Eva Lee is one of our finest musicians and dramatists. Her ambition is to become a secretary. The duPont Building will be the preferred place of refuge. We wonder "why"?

SAMUEL WATKINS—"Happy am I; from cares I am free, Why aren't they all contented like me?"

"Bones," as he is called, is a member of the Journalism Club. He is interested in soft-ball and in "throwing erasers." His plans for the future are to be an engineer, and to remain single unless the right girl comes along.

VIRGINIA WHEATLEY—"Silence is sweeter than speech."

Her greatest interest is reading; has no special dislikes. Greatest ambition is to become a nurse.

FLORENCE WHITTEN—"Wise to resolve and patient to perform."

Olive, as she is known to early school chums, is quite a dramatist. She expended her talents in last year's junior play, "The Mouse-Trap." She is an active member of the Commercial Club and from all indications will make some one an excellent secretary. She likes to dance and play hockey. (A great interest has developed in her Erny!)

MARY WILHELM—*"Rare compound of oddity, frolic, and fun,
Who relished a joke and rejoiced in a pun!"*

The little sweet-tempered socialite with a high place in the Oread Club. Name linked many times with a member of the Alumni, but she refuses to talk. Mary adds to a party with her "dumb and innocent" chirpings.

EUGENE WLODKOWSKI—"On with the dance! Let joy be unconfined."

"The King of Swing." And can he draw a crowd tickling keys on the piano? My, My! Remember him as "Hugh" in "Yours Truly Willie"? As the assistant editor of the "Conradian", he is an invaluable aid to the Journalism Club. Gene hopes to follow a musical career. Many are hoping with you, Genie, ol' boy.

EDWIN WOOLSEY—"If worry were the only cause for death, then I should live forever."

People around here don't realize what a very remarkable fellow Homer really is. He wants to know the advantage of going to school. Plans to go to the Sun Ship Yard at Chester for his vocation.

WILLIAM ZIEGLER—"A silent tongue and a true heart are the most admirable things on earth."

Bill (for so he is called by friends) is a member of the Commercial Club and Honor Society. He is interested in sports—basket-ball, baseball, and hunting.
