

CONRADIAN

www.conradhighschool.com

CONRADIAN WAR ISSUE

PUBLISHED BY
CONRADIAN PRESS
CLUB

JUNE 1943
PRICE $1.00

VOLUME 7
NUMBER 1

VIRGINIA ABBOTT

Well-known in dramatic activities, Virginia was an active member of the Dramatic Club and is well remembered for her part in the Junior Play. After graduation, Virginia plans to attend business college.

PAUL ABBOTT

Paul's greatest ambition is to be an officer in the Merchant Marine. For relaxation he likes to fish and swim; he definitely dislikes being teased about girls.

DORIS BENNETT

What a lovely smile! This is your first thought as Doris approaches. Brown hair and sparkling eyes complete the attractive picture. During her senior year she was a member of the Oreads, but prefers the open spaces to an interesting book.

ROBERT ANNAND

Bob played guard on the varsity football squad until injuries stopped his gridiron career during the past season. He was a member of the Junior and Senior Class Executive Committees, a member of the Junior Play cast, and the drum major in his sophomore year.

ELAINE BLYMAN

Man shortage? A dark-haired lassie is helping to remedy this catastrophe by becoming an usherette in the theater. At Conrad, Elaine belonged to the Library Squad and was also on the Business Staff of CONRADIAN as a junior. After graduation, she hopes to be a nurse.

RUDOLPH ANTONINI

Taking time out from shorthand and typing, "Rudy" enjoys baseball and bowling. He is one of our few male commercial students. With a majority of the fair sex in all his classes, Rudy claims a liking for education!

ALICE BOGART

Pretty and popular, Alice Bogart has participated in numerous activities; namely, Glee Club, Color Guard, CONRADIAN Press Club, Senior Executive Committee. She originally planned to attend Mary Washington College; but if the war continues, she hopes to join the "WAVES".

WARREN BALDWIN

"Ding, dong!" The bell tolls "Baldy's" high popularity. Class vice-president and member of the Student Council, he now desires to transfer his active spirit to the Navy Air Corps. We predict headlines and numerous medals for this flying cadet!

DORISE BOOKHAMMER

Dorise, better known as "Dee" or "Bookie," is fond of dancing, basketball, and the clarinet. She wants to become a detective and should make a good one. She has a pleasing personality and is an all-around good pal to those who know her.

NORMAN BEATTIE

Another Conradian who has donned Uncle Sam's uniform is "Norm," now stationed at Miami Beach, Florida. Being a camera fan, he particularly liked to snap photos of the fairer sex. During this last semester we've missed his winning smile and knack for getting into mischief.

ELIZABETH YOUNG BRADY

During her high school life Betty has been in the Candlelight Service, Girl Reserves, and Oreads. Betty enjoys ice skating, dancing, and bowling. She is married to a former Conradian, Jack Brady, who is now in the service.

WESLEY BEVANS

Remember George Bigelow, the lady's man, in "What a Life"? That was Wesley, displaying his dramatic ability. He is also interested in music and journalism. We are looking forward to your fame, Wesley, as a musician or star performer at a popular theater.

HELEN CANNON

"Snooky" Cannon joined our class this year, coming from Laurel High School. Her hobby is photography and swimming. Helen's ambition is to be a secretary, and we know that smile of hers certainly will help her to achieve it.

PHILLIP BRADY

"Nipper," or "Uncle Nip," as Phil is called, was outstanding in varsity football during his sophomore, junior, and senior years. Although not as musically inclined as some of his friends, he took a part in the Candlelight Service last year.

E. MARGUERITE CATHCART

The Delaware Hospital Training School for nurses will welcome a new member this fall. Tall and slender Marguerite, with her pleasing personality, should make the ideal nurse. She enjoys roller skating as a means of relaxation!

CHARLES BRATTON

During his four years at Conrad, Charles has participated in an opera, the Science Club, and honored the Candlelight Services each year with his mellow bass voice. His dramatic career reached its peak when he played "Henry Aldrich" in "What a Life."

FLORENCE CATHCART

Florence, as a student of the academic course, wants to attend Golley College. Among her interests are roller skating and dancing. During her junior year she was an active member of the Oreads.

VERNON BRINN

"To lend a helping hand" is Vernon's chief desire. He enjoys gardening of both vegetables and flowers. Vernon was a member of the Executive Committee and played intramural basketball. Possessing a rather quiet manner, he is a friend in need and a pleasing fellow to have on hand at all times.

AUDREY CLARK

This bright-eyed lass has many activities to add to her list. She was a twirler, member of the CONRADIAN Press Club, the Oreads, and, as a freshman, treasurer of the class. "To be successful in nursing" is her ambition.

CHARLES CAMORANO

"Cammy" is well known in the Commercial department. When not pounding a typewriter, he plays an active game of football on the gridiron. Bowling is another enjoyable hobby of his.

CLARA CROZIER CLOUD

"To be a perfect seamstress" is Clara's ambition. By making her own clothes, she has secured a splendid foundation for her career. A Twirler and an Oread, she is also fond of skating.

ROBERT ONLY

"Bob," a witty lad with auburn hair, is interested in hockey. He is taking the vocational course. After his departure from Conrad, Bob hopes to become a king of the airways and pilot some of Uncle Sam's famous bombers!

ANNA CONNER

"No whipped cream"—that's Anna Conner speaking, though it hardly seems possible. She participated in the Christmas pageant this year. Reading and skating take up much of her spare time. She is planning to become a nurse.

JOSEPH DONALD CORAZZO

Here's a boy showing a liking for both mechanics and athletics. He gained fame playing football for Conrad. Donald is very much interested in the workings of electric trains. His present desire is to join the Navy.

ASTRID DELITZSCH

Maintaining a spirit of leadership, Astrid became Secretary-Treasurer of the Science Club, Literary Editor of the CONRADIAN, President of the Oreads, and a member of the Leader Corps. Vividly we picture this "famous research chemist," peering into test tubes and solving the problems of humanity!

JESSE COYLE

Jesse, mischievous and likeable, has been halfback of the football team for three years. He enjoys hunting, fishing, dancing, and stamp collecting. After graduation he plans to enter the Army Air Corps.

CONCHITA DE MEDIO

Conchita has been active in both musical and dramatic circles. She sang in the Freshman Chorus and in the Glee Club (2, 3). She has also participated in several operettas and has had a leading role in "What a Life."

DAVE CURTIS

A cadet leader in the military training at Conrad, Dave is excellent in drilling. Reading and all sports are his hobbies. Playing tackle on the football team this year, Dave hopes to gain further goals in college!

BETTY DOREY

Around and around the rink skates a graceful figure. Behold, Betty Dorey, a tall, slender blonde! For two years, Betty has remained a member of the Oreads. "To be an efficient secretary" is her ambition. Everyone has a weakness for blue eyes, Betty! You'll succeed.

THOMAS DONALDSON

In addition to his analytical mind, Tom also possesses talent in drama and music. We all remember him as "Mr. Bradley" in the Junior Play and as "Orry" in the 1940 Competitive Play Contest. In the band he performs on the clarinet.

EVA DUDKEWITZ

Eva was an active member of the Art Club in her junior year. This jolly, brown-eyed lass loves to swim and go ice-skating. She has an eye for pretty clothes.

GILBERT EDLER

Handicapped by size, "Chick" still manages to play a swell game of football. Modeling planes is his interesting hobby. Uncle Sam may make this a permanent future job if the Army Air Corps doesn't lure Gilbert first.

DOROTHY ENOS

Bang! Bang! Bang! That's "Dot" at the piano. She enjoys all types of music and of course loves to dance. "Dot" was active in hockey, baseball, and basketball. Her ambition is to become a "WAVE."

RICHARD FINCHER

"Dick" entered Conrad in 1940 and has been following the General Course. Like many others, Dick enjoys good food in large quantities. His present ambition is to serve in Uncle Sam's Army.

VIRGINIA EWING

Jolly and gay, "Ewing" is also intelligent and a good student, as evidenced by membership in the Oreads for two years. She enjoys dancing and cheering for the Redskins.

CLARENCE FOX

With his ambition "to help win the war" we can see that Clarence will prove useful. "Foxy," a student of the general course, is fond of winter sports, and when the pond is frozen, he is sure to be found skating.

ELEANOR MAY FERRIER

During her high school career Eleanor has been a member of the Art Club, Oreads, and CONRADIAN Press Club, serving as Art Editor of CONRADIAN as a senior. Her talent in art was well in evidence in her work on the Victory Scrap Book.

FRANK GENTILE

Talented Frank Gentile has become the Benny Goodman of our school. A somewhat stocky fellow, he is known as "Gabby" to his friends, and, at times, to his teachers. Frank's one ambition is to clasp that diploma and enter the world—a man at last!

FRANCES GIACOMELLI

Frances Giacomelli, a tall girl with a pleasing personality, has hobbies of a quiet and restful nature. She enjoys books, the radio, and good movies. Frances is an active Oread and a Science Club member. Her interests include languages, and her ambition is to travel.

GEORGE HAMILTON

"Smilin' Jack" lives up to his nickname with a smile for every occasion. You girls looking for an easy-going husband, here ends your quest. Another nice characteristic about Jack is that he always has a good word to say about everybody.

LILLIAN GLENDEEN

"Yeh, team!" Recognize that voice? Yes it belongs to "Lil" Glenden, the cheerleader with unlimited pep. Lillian played basketball and was member of the Juniors Class Executive Committee. She wishes to devote her life to answering the plea, "Nurse, please hold my hand."

ROBERT M. HANBY

Bob likes to take things apart to see what makes them run but pie and ice cream are what he eats to keep his "machine" running. He hopes to join the Army Air Corps or the Army Engineers.

MARY GRAHAM

Mary, jolly and lively, has been a member of the Conrad Band for the past three years. One of her favorite pastimes is roller-skating, and her two ambitions are to drive a car and become a good secretary.

DONALD HOLLINGSWORTH

Into the crystal ball we gaze and see another member of the Army Air Corps. Donald, known as "Smoke," desires to repair Uncle Sam's huge bombers. He enjoys pictures of combats and hopes soon to see some real action!

IRENE GUEST

Here's a gal on whom has been bestowed a goodly share of glamor as well as a pleasant disposition. Irene, who spends as much time as possible at the skating rink, also enjoys the movies. As for ambition, Irene simply states "To be a stenographer."

FRANCIS HOOPES

Hear that smooth trombone? It's probably Francis Hoopes practicing the new music for the band. His vocation is not as yet decided upon, but he does know that his next employer will be "Uncle Sam."

BARBARA HAMBLETON

A slim, blonde newscamer at Conrad this year was "Bobby" Hambleton. Sports, the 4-H Club, and dramatics were a few of her extra-curricular activities at Lord Baltimore. She hopes for a successful career as a stenographer.

HAROLD WM. LAMBERT, JR.

All schools possess a champion Casanova and ours is "Bill." His fame in basketball and football has set many feminine hearts fluttering. Because of his superb dancing technique, his popularity was made complete. With these assets he should have a successful future.

NORMA JEAN HASTINGS

Ever diligent and busy, Norma plans to be a nurse. She was active in the band, Glee Club, CONRADIAN Press Club, Oreads, and Science Club. Interested in swing music, Norma naturally likes to dance.

AUBREY LANK

"Bud" Lank, tallest boy in the class, likes arguments, money, and travel. His hobbies are sleep, and a variety of card games. He has been a member of the Swing Band, CONRADIAN Staff and Science Club. His ambition is to join the Naval Air Corps.

VIRGINIA HAWKE

With height as an asset, Virginia has taken an active part in hockey and softball. Her hobbies include collecting stamps for pleasure and defense stamps for victory. She plans to become a nurse.

DANIEL LEE

Dan, the jovial Fuller Brush salesman with the impish grin and the twinkle in his eye, has been active in school affairs. A back on the Scarlet and Gray line-up, he also played basketball, and had roles in the Junior Play and variety show.

BETTIE HORNER

Musically inclined, Bettie has played the bell lyre in the band for two years; and, as a sophomore and a junior, sang in the Glee Club. She would like to teach singing, but for exercise and recreation she chooses bowling.

ROBERT LIND

A member of the varsity football team, "Bob" enjoys hunting and fishing. Taxidermy is his interesting hobby. He hopes to join the Army Air Corps after receiving his diploma in June.

ELEANOR IGNATOWSKI

Endowed with energy, personality, and a pleasant disposition, Eleanor has been very active in school affairs. She has served as Secretary of the Senior and Junior Classes, Editor-in-Chief of the CONRADIAN, and Secretary of the Student Council. She was also selected as D.A.R. representative.

HALDY MAGAW

Another skating fan is Haldy, but he admits that movies are running a close second to this more strenuous pastime. He spends much time in school working on his sixteen-foot boat in the shop, and after school his excess energy is worked off in the post office.

BERNIECE JONES

"To be a dietician" is Berniece's ambition. In school she was chairman of the program committee for the Junior Prom, a member of the Girl Reserves for three years, and of CONRADIAN Press Club for one year. Her favorite hobby is collecting miniature toy monkeys.

RALPH MALONEY

Ralph became a "hundred yarder" on the Red and Gray track team in his sophomore and junior years. An ardent "duck hunter," he usually "headed for the woods" after school hours. Inducted into the Army in January, he is now training to go "Jap hunting."

JANET KAYANAUGH

Janet's ambition is to join the SPARS, but in the meantime she loves to dance and buy new clothes. She participated in Candlelight Services, the Twirling Corps for four years, in the Leaders Corps, and in other girls' sports.

GEORGE McCRONE

Hats off to the Army! George, a member of our band, was recently inducted into the service. During his high-school career, George was known for his technique in making model airplanes. He is now stationed in Camp Brown, Illinois. Come on, Conradians, drop him a line.

BETTY KAPPEL

Ah! Here we have a shy little smile plus a bit of domesticity. Betty enjoys crocheting and collecting post-cards. Graduation from dramatic school is the pot of gold at her rainbow's end. With patience and endurance, Betty's climb to success should become a reality.

ERNEST METTENET

Sports-loving and mischievous, Ernie has been class president for two consecutive years. Athletically he has played varsity football, baseball, and basketball; and dramatically he played "Detective Ferguson" in "What a Life." Ernie hopes to join the Marines after his graduation.

AGNES KEYSER

Whiz—the ball goes neatly through the basket, and Agnes make another goal! Her hobbies are collecting coins, stamps, and postcards. To be a telephone operator is her ambition. Keep up the splendid teamwork, Agnes, and you'll succeed.

WALTER MITCHELL

Tall and serious, Walter enjoys collecting stamps from all parts of the world. He has always worked outside of school and is now employed by the Brown Music Machine Company.

DORIS LENZ

"Doe" Lenz entered Conrad as a junior, coming from Buffalo, New York, where she attended Kensington High School. Her ambition is to be a bank secretary. She has taken the commercial course, and, as a hobby, collects dogs.

HELEN MCKENDRICK

An ardent football fan, Helen is also musically inclined. She has been in the band for three years and has also participated in a Candlelight Service. Helen tells us that she likes to swim, dance, and play the piano for relaxation.

RICHARD MOOTZ

Aiding in the defense of his country, "Dick" works at the Sheet Metal Contracting Company after school and Saturdays. His chief interests are all centered around the building line. With more persons of Dick's ability and initiative, a speedy victory will be ours!

WILLARD ORR

"I love a good argument"—so says Willard, describing one of his pastimes. He was vice-president of the Science Club, co-chairman of the Junior Prom, and a member of the CONRADIAN Press Club, serving as co-editor of Alumni News this year.

FRANCES LEWIS

Orange blossoms and June! Of course Frances is the bride. She is already engaged and hopes to marry soon after graduation. In high school "Fran" was a member of the Twirling Corps, Variety Show, and Girl Reserves.

MARGARET MILLER

Tiny, optimistic Margaret carves a little niche of gaiety wherever she appears. Red, her favorite color, adds to the cheerful atmosphere she helps to create. She will receive a commercial diploma and will carry her sunny personality into some business office after graduation.

RALPH MURRAY

This future farmer of America enjoys the typical male hobbies—hunting and fishing. He spends most of his time, however, solving the problems the good earth offers to mankind. Immediately after graduation, Ralph will join the boys in khaki.

CARTER PALMER

Besides being an all around Conradian, Carter is talented in music, and has played the accordion in the school band and the piano in the swing band. In "What a Life" he had the role of the Italian father. After the war, Carter wants to be a dentist.

ANNADELE LIVERGOOD

"Milkshake? Sundae?" thus inquires a jolly waitress at the Park Pharmacy. Yes, it is Annadele, taking time out from basketball and novelty pin collecting to work after school. "To become a nurse" is her ambition. With pleasantness as an asset, her dream should certainly become a reality.

JEAN MILLIGAN

Snap! "I've got it!" Camera fan Jean has obtained another photo. Tennis and badminton, along with this hobby, keep her very active. Oddly enough, Jean's version of the perfect day is a soft bed, an interesting book, and a box of chocolates.

WILLIAM MURRAY

"Bulldog," a likeable and active senior, played football (2-4), basketball (2-4), baseball (2, 3), and track (3). He was also a member of the F. E. A. (1-4). Bill's most recent ambition is "to kill a Jap." He has been accepted in the Navy Air Corps.

JOHN PARSONS

John hopes that the Naval Air Corps will welcome him in June. His wholehearted ambition is to glide through the air in full control of a P-38. Your future should contain lots of excitement behind the leadership of Uncle Sam, John.

BETTY DIXON LUDLOW

Betty has been active in the Glee Club and in two Candlelight programs, where her services as a singer were prized. She has been a member of the Twirling Corps and the Girl Reserves and has played an important role in the Junior Play.

SUE ANNE NEWLIN

Sue Anne has many opinions and enjoys expressing them. She also likes swimming and listening to good music. Other musical interests include playing the piano and membership in the Glee Club. A student of the academic course, she plans to attend college and major in English.

WALTER NIBLETT

Enjoying all sports, but showing preference for swimming and skating, Walter was a member of the Scarlet and Gray football team for two years. He would very much like to be a contractor.

WILLIAM PEOPLES

Bill left us in February to accept a position making model airplanes for the Army at Langley Field. Last year Bill's model, made in shop, represented Delaware in the National Exhibit at Washington. For two years Bill was on the CONRADIAN Art Staff.

BETTY LOU NICHOLS

"Jitterbugging, taboo!" says this pretty little blonde. She does, however, attend the U.S.O. dances and really enjoys them. Despite Betty's perplexity concerning a future vocation, we feel confident that the pieces will come together to form a pleasing pattern.

WALTER PATTERSON

With agriculture as his main interest, Walter wants to be a good farmer. He is an active member of the F. F. A. For recreation, and relaxation he chooses bowling.

NANCY NOREM

Nancy sang with our Glee Club for two years and took part in three Candlelight Services. In her junior year she was homeroom representative of the CONRADIAN. Her chief hobby is sailing and she hopes to enter Mary Washington College next fall.

HOWARD POTTS

"Pottsy" played basketball for the Scarlet and Gray in 1940 after coming to Conrad from Marshallton. If you ever run out of mischief, just look up Howard and he'll be glad to fix you up.

IRENE NORRIS

Irene, who likes "to cut a rug" with Harry James and go sentimental with Sammy Kaye, relaxes when she hears Nelson Eddy's voice. Her ambition is to be an efficient secretary.

EDWARD RANSHAW

Easy-going and without a care in the world, Eddie has gone through his high school days thoroughly enjoying himself. He has been active in football, playing on both the Jay-Vee and Varsity teams.

ELIZABETH JANE OGDEN

With the usual twinkle in her eye, Elizabeth tells us she is an ardent skating fan, but also likes movies and dancing. Her pleasing personality certainly will prove helpful when she becomes a nurse.

WILLIAM REIGN

Bill's chief extra-curricular activity in high school has been the Science Club. Here's another chap whose plans for college will be slightly rearranged by Uncle Sam. In his spare time Bill builds model railroads.

PEGGY ROBBINS

Peggy was a trumpeter in the band for three years and was an Oread in her junior year. She enjoys movies, parties, and music in general. As a hobby, Peggy collects pictures of all her friends.

EDWARD RICHARDS

A newcomer to Conrad in the last semester is this quiet lad from Forty Fort High School, Pennsylvania. He was a member of the track team during his sophomore and junior years. His ambition, Edward tells us, is to be a draftsman.

PEGGY ROBINSON

An Oread during her junior and senior years, Peggy is Alumni Co-Editor of the CONRADIAN this year, and also serves on the Library Squad in free periods. She was on the Junior Class Executive Committee and aided with the Junior Class Play. Peggy hopes to become a nurse.

TOM RIGGIN

"Some day my ship will come in!" says Tom. While that ship sails the high seas, he hopes to attend college and learn to budget his income. Tom was a former member of the Student Council, the Press Club, and played in Conrad's Band for three years.

MARTHA ROBINSON

We'll soon be seeing Martha Robinson as a WAAC or a WAVE if she fulfills her ambition. She likes to read and also to write letters. "Marty" has been patriotically active in the Women's Volunteer Corps, serving as a messenger and working at the Control Center.

DARDEN RODDEN

Known to his pals as "Willie," Darden is an energetic member of the Military Drill Squad. When he has time to spare, he is likely to be found building model airplanes or sitting in a movie theatre.

JEAN RUTH

Jean Ruth may be described as small and smiling. Her favorite pastimes are stamp collecting and dancing. She has taken the scientific course, and after graduating will go into training for nursing.

HARVEY RUTTER

To be a Naval pilot or a drummer in a name band is "Jay" Rutter's aim. Fond of popular music, he furnished many recordings for the dances. He managed the basketball team for one year, and was also a member of the Swing Band and

IRENE SMILEY

Irene was active in the Freshman Choir, Junior Play, Twirling Corps, and in basketball. Her hobbies, she says, are boys and dancing. With her smiling personality, she should succeed with both.

JOSEPH A. SENINGEN

The star basketball player of his gym class, Joe has also played J. V. football and track. To join the fighting Leathernecks is his ambition. With good sportsmanship as an asset, Joe should make a fine Marine!

VIRGINIA SPENCE

"Gin" is quite active in sports, taking major interests in basketball and hockey. She participated in the Candlelight Service in her freshman and sophomore years. She enjoys skating and the movies, but very seldom dances. Her ambition is to be a stenographer.

WILLIAM SMITH

During his years in Conrad, Bill has been quite interested in music, having played with both the school and swing bands. Besides music he enjoys movies, musical comedies, football and baseball. When he enters the army, he hopes to join the Engineering Corps.

FLORENCE SQUIBB

A paint brush glides skillfully across an easel. The artist is no other than Florence Squibb. She has been a member of the Art Club for three years. President Roosevelt is Florence's favorite personality.

JACK SYMONDS

Extra-curricularly, Jack has been a member of the F. F. A. and Biology Clubs. His outside interests include swimming and art. Jack's earnest desire is to become a minister. At the present time he teaches Sunday School.

JEAN STEWART

For four years Jean has been in the Twirling Corps, serving as captain in her junior and senior years. She was also a member of CONRADIAN Press Club, serving as Business Manager in her senior year. She likes to swim and bowl.

ROBERT TAYLOR

Bob Taylor is a popular and intelligent senior, whose chief interests are airplanes and camping. His school activities include being president of the Science Club and Sports Editor of the CONRADIAN. After graduating, he hopes either to join the Air Corps or to attend college.

MILDRED STRADLEY

The third great-granddaughter of Jacob Broom, a signer of the Constitution, is Mildred. When a junior she participated in the Pan-American program. A Saint Valentine's Day child, she should receive the blessings of Cupid in all undertakings.

JOHN TOWNSEND

"Gentleman farmer with a bulging wallet"—this is Jack's ambition. His baritone horn adds much to the Conrad Band. Employed after school at the Hercules Experimental Station, Jack still manages to collect popular phonograph records. Industrious? That's what "Webster" would call him.

MAXYNE STROISCH

From Alexandria, Louisiana, came Maxyne. At Conrad she has been a member of the Oreads and has served on the Library Squad as a junior and senior. She enjoys reading new books and dotes on cupcakes and milk.

FERRIS YEARSLEY

Students, cheer up! Optimistic Ferris predicts a speedy victory for the Allies. For three years Ferris has been batting a high average on Conrad's baseball team. With Ferris in there swinging for victory, how can we lose?

JANET TANSLEY

A more reserved member of the Senior Class, Janet came to Conrad in her junior year. Her favorite pastimes are writing to service men and collecting records. A student of the commercial course, Janet hopes to become a good stenographer.

JULIA TAYLOR

Julia, our attractive and talented singer, has been an active student at Conrad. Her activities include the Oreads (3, 4), Glee Club (1-4), Girl Reserves (1-3), CONRADIAN Press Club (1-4), the Junior Prom and a member of the Junior Class Executive Committee.

MARY JANE THOMPSON

"Jitterbugging—that's my speed," so says Mary Jane. During her junior year she was elected Secretary of the Girl Reserves. Mary was also a member of the Glee Club and took part in the Christmas Cantata.

MYRTLE THOMPSON

"Myrtle" belonged to the CONRADIAN Press Club (2, 3), Oreads (3), and the Red Cross Club (2). Her chief hobby is dancing, but her ambition will take her into business—as a secretary, she hopes.

EDITH TOULSON

Using the policy "to make the world a better place in which to live," Edith is a quiet girl who wants to teach a Sunday School of small children. She was an Oread and a member of the Art Club in her junior year.

JOSEPHINE WITKOWSKI

"Hi you, kid!" Yes, that's Josephine greeting you. She was a member of the Girl Reserves and Library Club. She likes to dance, and when asked which particular band she preferred, she immediately replied "Glenn Miller."

DOROTHY WALKER

Although "Dottie" may appear quiet and serious, she is really a jolly person to those who know her. She was a member of the CONRADIAN Advertising Staff (3) and of the Candlelight Chorus (1). She has had charge of a post office substitution for some time.

MARGARET WITT

During her four years at Conrad, Margaret has been a member of the Library Squad, the CONRADIAN Business Staff, and the Girl Reserves. She has had dramatic roles in two operettas and in the play, "What a Life." For relaxation she plays the piano.

ELVA WARRICK

Elva, a blond-haired student of pleasing personality, expects to become a typist after graduation. Her hobbies are collecting photographs and keeping a scrapbook of sports. She also enjoys movies and basketball games.

LULA WEIDLY

Munching chocolates while reading an exciting novel is Lula's favorite pastime. Possessing scholastic ability, Lula has maintained membership in the Oreads for two years. She should have no difficulty in achieving her ambition, namely, to become an efficient secretary.

JEAN WILSON

Jean's favorite sports include hockey, baseball, and basketball. "Butch" has been a member of the Leader Corps for the last three years. First place on her list of hobbies goes to ice skating. Her one ambition is to graduate from Conrad in June, 1943.

