CHARLES ABRAMS

Good-natured "Chuck" Abrams takes the general course and plans to join the Navy after graduation. He loves to play basketball and baseball and to go to the movies. His pet hates (according to him) are dancing and girls.

MARGARET BRITTINGHAM

Happy-go-lucky "Pug," as most of us know her, is an academic student. Although her main hobby is dancing, she has also been active in the Glee Club, Band, and Oreads. She plans to enter the Cadet Nurse Corps at Delaware Hospital in September.

LILLIAN ALBERS

Known to all of us as "Till," this jitterbug is always ready to have a good time. She is taking the general course and has been an active twirler for three years. After graduation, "Till" plans to go in training in the Cadet Nurse Corps.

CHRISTINA BROWN

"Chrissy," an academic student spends her spare time reading mystery stories or roller skating. She has been an active member in the Oreads and the Bio-Science Club. "Chrissy's" ambition is to make a certain soldier happy when he returns from the war. Her four years of home economics will probably prove very valuable.

HELEN ASH

Helen, a former student of Delaware City, enjoys bicycle riding and dancing. Her activities at Delaware City were secretary of the junior class and basketball. Her ambition is to be a nurse, but we hear that a certain sailor is more important.

GEORGE CLIFFORD BROWN

George, an academic student, studies airplanes as a hobby. In the near future he plans to enlist in the Naval Air Corps, and, later, to become a mechanical engineer. His activities include air spotting and working on the CONRADIAN Sports Staff.

ELEANOR BAGDONAS

Eleanor came to Conrad in her senior year from Technical High School, Scranton, where her favorite extracurricular activity was singing in the Glee Club. Her ambition is to become a dietitian, and her hobbies are collecting movie stars' photographs, post cards, and stamps.

ROBERT BROWN

Rat-tat-tat-tat—here comes "Brownie" in a P-38! His greatest ambition is to be an officer in the Army Air Corps. He enjoys "shooting the breeze" and making model airplanes for the Army. He also has an urge to travel, especially in the foreign countries.

AGNES BEDFORD

Perhaps one of the most unusual ambitions of any Conradian is that of Agnes Bedford—to be a professional roller skater. Her other hobbies center in ice skating and dancing. She was a member of the Glee Club in her junior year.

HELEN BROWNE

Cheerful, smiling Helen, a student of the scientific course, hopes to become a home economics teacher. She played with the hockey team and is a member of the CONRADIAN Business Staff. Her hobbies include collecting wish-bones, dancing, and attending school sports.

BETTY BENNETT

A more or less reserved member of the senior class is Betty, who came to us from Stanton-on-the-Race-Track. Her favorite pastime is collecting popular records. As a student of the commercial course, Betty hopes to become a good stenographer.

BETTY J. BURKEY

Reliability, neatness, intelligence, and a pleasing personality are the characteristics of Betty which should prove to be assets in making a good secretary. Her patriotic and interesting hobby is writing to servicemen. She was an Oread during her junior and senior years.

CHARLYNE BOWERS

In numerous school activities, including Girl Reserves (3, 4), Oreads (3, 4), CONRADIAN Art Staff (2, 3), and Biology Club (2), Charlyne has been a cheerful and efficient worker. An academic student, she hopes to enroll in the University of Delaware after graduating from Conrad.

MARGARET ELLA BURNS

"Peggy," a commercial student, was a member of the Oreads in her junior year. Her favorite hobby is writing letters to men in the service. She is engaged to a soldier and hopes to be married soon.

BARBARA BOYER

Tall, blue-eyed "Babs," one of the few Conrad students to have twelve years' perfect attendance, takes the academic course and plans to become an English teacher. She was a member of the Glee Club for four years, and of the Science Club (2), and the Conradian Press (4).

GEORGE BUSHKO

George, a student of the scientific course and a CONRADIAN photographer, came to us from Wilkes-Barre. His favorite sport is bowling; his hobby, amateur photography. At present he wants to join the Air Corps; later to college to study civil engineering.

AUDREY BYERLY

Audrey, a commercial student, has a pleasing personality and is well liked by everyone. In addition to being a CONRADIAN and Red Cross Representative, she also was a member of the Color Guard. As soon as the graduates, she plans to marry Midshipman Eugene Splangler.

SAMUEL CAMPERSON

Sam's neat appearance has presented itself in many a classroom frolic. His dash of wit has often caused ripples of laughter and sometimes even amused his teachers. A career in commercial art is his ambition. He spends his spare time collecting pictures of dogs and airplanes.

ELBERT CHANCE

This year's Literary Editor of the CONRADIAN has been active in Intramural Basketball (2, 3, 4); air spotting (2, 3); and served as president of the Biology Club (2). Gifted with dramatic ability and a rich singing voice, he was a member of the Delaware Play Contest (2) and gave support to the Candlelight Service (1, 4) and Junior Play (1).

FRANCES CHILLAS

Frances, better known as "Frannie" to her classmates, is working for a scientific diploma, since her ambition is to become a nurse. She has participated in the Girl Reserves, Bi-Si Club, CONRADIAN Press Club, and the Candlelight Services of '40 and '41. She enjoys ice skating and collecting souvenirs.

J. THOMAS CHURN

Tom's ambition is to be an aeronautical engineer which accounts for his fervent building of model airplanes. In his junior and senior years, he was a member of the Science Club. Tom's other hobbies are bowling and model railroading.

FRANK COSTANGO

From Delaware City comes Frank Costango, one of Conrad's most likeable students, even though he is known to certain senior girls as one of the "three brutes." His activities include football, basketball, and intramural sports. "Frankie" hopes to join the Air Corps in the near future.

OLIVE CRAIG

Small but ambitious Olive was Class Treasurer (1, 2) at Delaware City; and, at North East High School, a member of the Dramatic Club. Her hobbies are skating and swimming. In Olive, we hope that the commercial world will find an efficient secretary.

BETTY DONAVAN

Our class is proud to have in Betty a natural basketball whiz. Besides her spectacular ability on the court, she is just as nice to know around classes. Betty hopes to be a secretary; that is, if the Bombettes don't pick her up first.

MARJORIE DOUGHTON

"Margie" is an attractive commercial student who hopes some day to be a stenographer, after she has been a W.A.S.P. She loves airplanes (and their pilots) and also enjoys dancing.

NANCY DOYLE

No, that is not Pietro Deiro "sending" on the accordion, but our own Nancy. In line with her musical talents and patriotic attitude, she does her bit by dancing with the boys at the Newport Service Center. Nancy has been active in the Band, Bio-Science Club, and the Chemi-Phys Club.

EDWIN S. EASTBURN

Happy-go-lucky Ed is an ardent photographer and model airplane builder. The CONRADIAN snapshot pages are evidence of his clever work in photography. His activities include: CONRADIAN (1, 3, 4); Football (1); Science Club (3); Biology Club (2); Air Spotting (3). His ambition is to become a watchmaker.

EDWARD ECKLES

The class "Henry Aldrich," Ed is known for his droll smile and teddy bear haircuts. He has been an active member of the F. F. A. and was vice-president of this organization in his senior year. Ed plays a mean game of basketball, and his interests include skating, dancing, and . . . blonds.

THELMA EDLER

This five-foot blond enjoys movies, swimming, and ice skating. Her activities include treasurer of the Bi-Si Club, secretary of the Oreads, and membership in the Student Council. Thelma, who has a way with children, would like to be a kindergarten teacher.

FRANCES EDWARDS

Crash! The pins fly in all directions. That is only "Franny" enjoying her favorite hobby, bowling. Mischievous and always ready for a good time, she also does a neat job of "cutting a rug." Her activities have been: Candlelight Service (1, 2, 3); Basketball (2). To become a typist is her ambition.

ROBERT ELLIOTT

Bob, an academic student, rates high in scholastics and athletics. His activities include: Student Council (1, 2), Band 1(1-3), CONRADIAN Press Club (4), Baseball (1), Football (3, 4), Basketball (2-4), and Vice-President of the Junior Class. He enjoys dancing, ice skating, swimming, and hiking. Bob looks forward to a career as an electrical engineer.

JANET ELLIS

Janet, a real pal and a "Hardy" sport, dreams of going to the University of Delaware, where she will learn techniques in teaching. Her activities at Conrad include treasurer and secretary of the Girl Reserves (2-4); Candlelight (1-2); and Biology Club (2). Janet will graduate with a scientific diploma.

ANTHONY FAUERBACH

The ambition of "Clem" or "Flowerpot" (two of his nick-names) is to be successful at "something." Photography and dancing register on his hobby list. Activities: CONRADIAN Photo Staff (3, 4), J. V. Football (1, 2), Bi-Si Club (2), Science Club (3). He takes the academic course.

JOHN FAULKNER

Air-minded John, who is a student of the vocational course, likes to build model airplanes, hunt, and fish. Last year he had a great time helping to spot airplanes. After graduation John would like to enter some branch of the Air Corps.

MIRIAM FENIMORE

Better known as "Pinky," her ambition is to be a professional roller skater. She has been engaged to Walter Suelter S 1/C since June and hopes to make a good Navy wife. Her hobbies are dancing, roller skating, and fun and frolic.

DICK FLETCHER

Dick, Mr. Clark's "right-hand man," wants to be an Aeronautical Engineer. He likes duck hunting and ice skating for hobbies. He takes vocational course and was the only male representative for Red Cross but quickly resigned. Activities: Football (1, 2), CONRADIAN (1, 2).

ANNA FORSSTEDT

Anna was born in Sweden and didn't see American soil until she was nearly eighteen—months old. She likes to sing and dance, and her ambition is to be a secretary on an ocean liner. Anna hopes to find her "man" on the high seas.

JANE FREEMAN

Jane uses much of her spare time for swimming or dancing. She has been an active member of the Girl Reserves, Biology Club, and Library Squad. After obtaining her general diploma she hopes to join the WAVES.

VIOLET GIVENS

Small, dark-haired "Sis" Givens has been leading Conrad in cheers for three years. She is taking the general course and hopes to become a secretary. "Sis" has also been an active member of the Glee Club and she says that her hobbies are dancing and "Wolfing."

MELVIN GOLDBERG

The Navy has a future member in "Mel." The second of his two ambitions is to see Conrad have an undefeated football season. "Mel" has played right guard on the football team for two years. His hobbies are sports, dancing, and reading.

CHARLES GONDEK

This will be Charles' last year of sleeping in class for he plans to become a fighter pilot after graduation. Charles is taking the general course and has enjoyed playing baseball and football. His hobbies are bowling and attending the movies.

BENJAMIN GREEN

Good-natured "Ben" is well known at Conrad for his acrobatic ability. A member of the F.F.A. and of the tumbling team, he also enjoys driving, horseback riding, and swimming. "Ben" takes the academic course and plans to join the Marines after graduation.

DONALD GREGG

Better known to the fellows as "Deateye," Donald Gregg is one of the most versatile boys in our senior class. He was class president during both his junior and senior years. Athletically inclined, Don starred in both basketball and football. His ambition is to become a mechanical engineer.

ESTLEEN GUYER

Dark-haired, attractive Estleen enjoys typing, dancing, and collecting letters from a sailor. We think she has picked her career, for she is engaged to Radioman Frank Rowe, United States Navy. Good luck to you both.

CHARLES HALL

"Chuck," from Delaware City, takes the scientific course. He likes swimming and fishing, but building model planes is his favorite hobby. After graduation he hopes to be an Army Air Cadet. Activities at Delaware City—Junior Play, J. V. Basketball, and Football; at Conrad—Football.

JACK HANNA

After the war, if he is able to realize his ambition, Jack plans to have a barber shop of his own. In addition to cutting hair, he enjoys wood-working, especially building models. In his freshman year he was awarded a numeral for football.

MARGUERITE HARKNESS

Although she is taking the commercial course and has a secretarial job in mind, Marguerite, quiet and sweet, gets a lot of fun out of raising chickens. So we personally think she'll make somebody a good little farmer's wife.

EDWIN HARRIS

"Ed," vice-president of the senior class, enjoys swimming, dancing, and sports. He has been a member of the football team for three years. Ed's ambition is to become a Navy man through the V-12 training; and, in our opinion, he will come through with flying colors.

BALDWIN HARTER

To own a convertible Buick, to graduate from Conrad, to join the Army, and to become a doctor comprise Baldwin's ambitions. He has followed the academic course and likes to swim, drive, and to collect stamps in his spare time. His activities were Candlelight (1), Science Club (3), and Military Drill (3).

OLGA HAWKE

This year's Editor of the CONRADIAN was correctly chosen "most ambitious student." Her many fine qualities and academic training almost assure her ambition—a successful life. Stamp collecting, classical music, and art are her hobbies; while her activities include CONRAMIAN (3, 4), Oreads (3, 4), and Junior Executive Committee.

DORIS HILLIS

"Butch" has several hobbies including singing for her own amusement, dancing, and bowling. Her activities have been Candlelight Service (2) and Hall Duty (3). Her ambition is to be manager of a Western Union Office.

CARL HIRSCH

A future Marine, Carl has been with the band and orchestra for three years. After 3:15 Carl is a "Technical Inspector" at the New Castle Army Air Base. His favorite pastimes are dancing and fooling with gasoline engines.

GEORGE HITCHENS

A basketball zips through the basket with ease. Yes, that's George, one of our star players! An all-round good fellow, he was president of the Student Council (4), and a member of the Football (4), Basketball (2, 3, 4), and Baseball (3) teams. In the future, he plans to don a uniform of Navy blue.

JEAN HUBERT

During her high-school career Jean has attended three different schools: Marshallton, Delaware City, and Conrad. Sports are her main interests, and her favorites are basketball, archery, and horseback-riding. She is also quite active in the U.S.O. Her ambition is to become a nurse.

ROBERTA HUGHES

"Bobbie," well-known for her vivacity and pep, has been a Color Guard in the Band for four years. Much of her spare time is spent practicing tap and ballet-dancing. She also enjoys ice-skating. "Bobbie" took part in the Variety Show, which was given during her freshman year.

GLORIA IANNAZONE

Gloria—nicknamed "Irish" and "Bubbles"—always has a smile for everyone and a fine capacity for enjoying herself. For four years she has been active in the Twirling Corps. Her favorite activity is dancing. She looks forward to a nursing career.

RICHARD JACKSON

"Shorty," whose ambition to become six feet four inches tall seems fantastic to us, says, with a chuckle, that sports and girls are his hobbies. He played basketball (2, 3, 4) and, of course, all that time spent out of various classes was used working with the Lighting Committee.

ROBERT JACKSON

Bobby, a student of the general course, enjoys going to fires; and as a means of seeing more of them, he has joined the Hockessin Fire Company. Bobby readily admits that his favorite hobby is loafing.

MARY LOUISE JARRELL

Blonde, curly-haired Mary Louise is one of these rare individuals who enjoys writing letters, preferably to the Navy. Her ability with the needle and thread made her decide on sewing as a career. Mary Louise is also a talented member of the Twirling Corps.

NELSON JESTER

Nelson, who came to Conrad from Delaware City, is a friendly, happy-go-lucky individual. He participated in baseball and was in the cast of the Junior Class Play while at Delaware City. His immediate ambition is to be a gunner in a Flying Fortress.

VIRGINIA JEWETT

"Ginny," who has attended schools in both New York State and Delaware, came to Conrad this year from P. S. duPont. She is Art Editor in the CONRADIAN Press Club, and her ambition is to illustrate magazine stories. Her hobbies are sketching and writing letters to the Navy.

CHARLES JOHNSON, JR.

Charles, who rates high as a "Casanova" with the girls from P. S. duPont, has as a hobby collecting "stamps and blondes." His school activities include the Science Club and Military Drill. His ambitions are to see California and to receive a college degree in chemistry.

MADelyn KAUTZ

Madelyn answers to "Mad" or "Kats"; but to many she is the "Dinner Table Comedian." An academic student, she has been in the Oreads, Bi-Si Club, Library Squad, and the Girl Reserves. Reading non-fiction is her hobby, and training to become a nurse, her ambition.

JANE KLAIR

Scholastically speaking, "Janie" is an academic student. She is a member of the Oreads and is on the CONRADIAN staff. Horse-back riding is one of Jane's favorite sports, and she hopes some day to have a horse of her own.

VIRGINIA KOPYSTECKI

"Ginny's" ambition is to become a good bookkeeper. She is a short, vivacious blonde slightly on the serious side, but still with plenty of stored-up fun which pops out at the right time. As for hobbies, Ginny enjoys swimming, and collecting cards, photographs, and letters.

GRACE LARSON

Dimpled and mischievous-eyed, "Grace" is our class woffess. An academic student, her activities include membership in the Science Club, Alumni editorship of CONRADIAN, and secretaryship of the Girl Reserves. Grace loves music and sports, and her ambition is to travel in Europe.

MARIAN LEACH

Sophisticated, glamorous Marian takes the Scientific course and has been an active member of the CONRADIAN Business Staff, Color Guard, and President of the Girl Reserves. Her hobby is reading and her ambition, to be a social worker, preferably in a foreign country.

NANCY LINDSAY

A quiet girl with a pleasing personality, Nancy's hobbies are horseback riding, collecting miniature soap cakes, and dancing at the U.S.O. A member of the Oreads, Band, and Press Club, Nancy is pursuing the academic course. Her ambition is to travel in Europe after the war.

ALFRED LOCKWOOD

"Al" spends much time getting his homework done at the last minute. His hobbies are bowling and swimming, and much of his time is spent working in an Acme Market. "Al's" ambition is to become a professional soldier.

AUDREY LUDLOW

A member of the Senior Executive Committee and Glee Club, Audrey is taking the commercial course. She is particularly outstanding with her alto voice and sunny smile. Audrey's hobby is dancing, and she intends to become a secretary after graduation.

CONSTANCE MARVEL

Besides being a superb swimmer, "Connie" loves all sports. After an arduous day with her commercial studies, she may be seen flying either to a CONRADIAN meeting, a band function, or to the Leaders Corps. Everyone agrees that she is a wonderful tonic for the blues.

MARIAN MASON

When not engrossed in her commercial studies, Marian may be found doing her part to keep up the morale of the servicemen at the Newport Service Center. We can't blame a soldier's morale for soaring when they see pretty dark-haired "Mas."

BILL MATTHEWS

An infinite number of alibis has made our class "Apple Polisher" a famous character. He participated in the Biology Club and for two years served as basketball manager (3, 4). His hobbies are buying records, dancing, and the movies. To join the Navy is his present commendable ambition.

DOROTHY MILLER

Among the students from Delaware City we have commercial student "Dot" Miller. At Delaware City she was active in the Student Council, Glee Club, and was president of the Sophomore class. "Dot" also enjoys photography as a hobby, but she seeks nursing as a career.

HELEN MILLER

Ah, yes, we have a prospective lady leatherneck in our midst, too. A member of the twirling corps, Helen loves to dance and skate when not pounding a typewriter or taking shorthand dictation.

Good luck to you, Helen, in the Marines.

JOE MOORE

Bowling and the movies are the pastimes which Joe lists as tops. His activities have been intramural basketball, track (2), and Military Drill. The Army Air Corps has another prospective member after Joe's graduation.

BEVERLY MOSS

Small and energetic, "Bev" takes the academic course and her hobbies are collecting match covers and Marines. While at Conrad, she has been an active member of the Bi-Si Club, Chemi-Phiz Club, CONRADIAN Press Club, and Oreads. Beverly's ambition is to travel to South America.

MARJORIE ORR

Margie's hobbies, swimming and horseback riding, tell us she's an outdoor girl—and a good one too, as being a member of the Leaders' Corps has shown. Her ambition, to become a Ship's Nurse, might explain why she likes sailors.

MARYANNE PALMER

Always on the go, Maryanne has been active in basketball, hockey, band, and has served as Exchange Editor of the CONRADIAN. She is taking a general course and wishes to attend an all girl college. Maryanne's hobby is "having a good time."

ANTHONY PAOLETTI

We all call him "Tony," but he's better known as "Romeo." Everyone loves to dance with him because he really navigates smoothly. He hopes to join the Navy and, if we know "Tony," he won't let the tradition down—"A sweetheart in every port."

FABIO PAOLETTI

Fabio, with his flashing, dark eyes, is well liked by his classmates. His activities include football and the Bi-Si Club. "Fabe" enjoys reading scientific and historical books, and hopes to travel abroad in the future.

FLORENCE PARKER

Although "Floss" or "Reds" didn't come to Conrad until her junior year, we were surely glad to get her. She is a sports-lover, particularly enjoying basketball. To be a good stenographer is her ambition, and her pretty red hair will never be a drawback.

IRIS PEIRSON

Iris' many activities show her versatile personality. She has been a member of the Band, Oreads, Girl Reserves, Biology, Science, and Press Clubs, and the Library Squad. She was also junior class treasurer. Her hobby is reading, and her ambition is to teach mathematics.

JANICE PETERSON

"Pete" is about the busiest person we know. In her senior year alone she was CONRADIAN Business Manager, Secretary of the Student Council, and active in the Oreads and Leader's Corps. Always willing to do a little more, Pete will undoubtedly make a super secretary!

ELLA PIERSON

Ella, enthusiastic, friendly, and cheerful, is a typical all-round girl. She was president of the Oreads (4), class secretary (3, 4), and a member of the Student Council, Science and CONRADIAN Press Clubs. Ella's hobbies are dancing and sports, and her ambition is to become a social worker.

WILLIAM PIERSON

The vocational course has occupied most of Bill's time while in Conrad, but he has also participated in the Band (1), Telephone Corps (2), and F.F.A. (1, 2, 3, 4). His ambition is to own a large chicken farm, but at present he hopes to aid in ending the war.

MAE PRICE

At Delaware City, Mae was secretary of her sophomore English Club. She was also in the cast of "A Bargain's a Bargain." Among her hobbies are ice skating, riding, and writing letters. In the near future she hopes to be a nurse.

DANA PYLE

Dana's forte is music. Playing the alto sax in the band and leading the swing band, Dana also found time to be a member of the CONRADIAN Art Staff. His ambition is to become a designer or an orchestra leader, but at present, he wishes to join the Naval Air Corps.

MARIE REARDON

After an illness of three weeks, Marie, one of Conrad's most vivacious and popular seniors, died on April 22 in the Delaware Hospital. As hobbies, Marie enjoyed dancing and twirling with the Band. After graduation she had hoped to join the Cadet Nurse Corps. Her friendly smile will long be remembered.

WILLIAM REITER

Conrad's natural successor to Harry James has a wide range of activities which he enjoys. Among them are baseball, basketball, football, and listening to recordings. Bill's hobbies are collecting snapshots, records, and sheet music. He has been in both the school and swing bands.

FLORENCE REYNOLDS

Collecting paperweights is one of the unusual hobbies listed by "Fruff" Reynolds. Her long list of activities consists of cheerleading (2-4), CONRADIAN (1-4), Candlelight (1, 2), Oreads (3, 4), Leader's Corps (3), and CONRADIAN Club Editor. Her odd moments are filled by the theatre, dancing, and eating.

NORMAN REYNOLDS

A quiet, clean-cut fellow, Norman came to Conrad this year from Delaware City. While at the latter school he was president of the junior class, the Student Council, and had the lead in the junior class play. An "A" student, Norman hopes to be either an English instructor or a surgeon.

JEAN ANN RUTH

"Jeannie with the light brown hair" is usually to be found dancing. Since she is taking the commercial course, her ambition is to be a secretary. Going to the movies vies with dancing as her chief hobby. In her sophomore year, "Jeannie" was in the cast of the Variety Show.

VAUGHN RUTTER

The winner of the school "jitterbug" contest, "Monk" enjoys dancing. He plans to join the Army Air Corps after graduation. Vaughn played freshman football, managed basketball, and was a member of the lighting committee and of the band.

STANLEY SALTZMAN

To get the most out of life is the ambition of Stanley Saltzman, who lists archery as his favorite activity. While at Conrad, he has followed the general course. Working after school has limited his activities to a great extent.

JOAN SCHRANCK

Talented in the musical field, "Schrancky" has made music her hobby and to this list adds swimming. Among her activities are: Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Oreads (3, 4); Biology Club (2); Science Club (3); Girl Reserves (1, 2). She takes the scientific course, and plans to become a nurse.

PAUL DOUGLAS SHOCKLEY

Tall, handsome Doug came to Conrad from Seaford. He played end with the gridiron "Redskins," but his senior football career was shortened by a broken toe. Mechanical engineering has always interested Doug, but now he wishes to join the Marines.

VIRGINIA SIDWELL

"Energy and personality plus, that's "Ginnee." With her many school activities—cheerleading, hockey, and basketball, plus swimming, dancing, and buying new clothes—she doesn't leave much of this energy unused. "Ginnee" will receive the academic diploma and hopes to attend the University of Wisconsin.

RUTH STEELE

Peppy, rusty-haired Ruth has a prejudice for the Navy. She is taking the academic course and her ambition is to make Latin more enjoyable for future students. "Rusty's" hobby is 4-H work, and she has also been an active member of the Oreads, Bi-Si Club, and of the Red Cross.

CHARLES STEINKE

To become a veterinarian is Charlie's ambition, and we all think he'll make it. He's been one of our most active and industrious "Ag" students and F.F.A. members. Charlie also enjoys hunting and fishing as recreational pursuits.

DOLORES STEWART

Vivacious and energetic Dolores Stewart has been a member of the Cheering Squad for the past three years. "Dory" has proved her art ability by membership on CONRADIAN Art Staff and by planning the decorations for our Junior Prom. She intends to become a hematologist—a blood technician.

JACQUELINE STEWART

Curly-haired "Jackie" takes the Scientific course and plans to attend Mary Washington College where she will study Home Economics. She is a member of the Leader Corps, Press Club, Journalism class, and Oreads. In her Freshman year "Jackie" won the D.A.R. medal for fine sewing.

URSULA STODDART

Pleasant, Auburn-haired Ursula likes dancing and skating, which she has adopted as hobbies. A student of the commercial course, she plans to become a secretary. She was formerly a member of the Girl Reserves and of the Glee Club.

KATHRYN STRICKLAND

Hold your hats, everyone, for "Kitty" is at the controls of the helicopter, the realization of her ambition—flying. Endowed with energy, her activities have been Band (1, 2); Oreads (4); Cheerleader (3); Student Council (4); Senior Class Treasurer. Though taking the academic course, she plans to attend business college.

DORIS SWIFT

"Tiny" would be a good name for small and slender Doris. She thoroughly enjoys roller skating, dancing, and music. As a sophomore she sang in the Glee Club. With her personality she certainly should fulfil her ambition—to make a certain sailor happy.

MILLARD SYDNOR

Every class has a practical joker, and "Syd" is ours. Aside from levity, the scientific course has him rather busy, but he still finds time to work at Bel-lanca. His ambition is to continue at his present job until "Uncle Sam" calls.

ALLEN TACKETT

For the first eleven years of his school life Allen attended Delaware City School where he was active in sports, social activities, and academic work. His main interests lie in the fields of chemistry and electricity, and he hopes to some day become an electrical engineer.

PATRICIA TACKITT

"Pat" is one of our new seniors acquired from Delaware City. While there she played an active role in school affairs, taking part in basketball, volleyball, and the play, "A Bargain's a Bargain." She also served as chairman of the Junior Prom at Delaware City.

ELEANOR THOMPSON

Dancing, jitterbugging, and being a teacher's spare take up good-natured Eleanor's terror time. Her extra-curricular activities include the Girl Reserves (2) and the Girls' Basketball Team (3). In the future she plans to enter the commercial field as a secretary or bookkeeper.

MARY TOULSON

Gifted with a sunny disposition and ready smile for everyone, Mary is a quiet, likeable senior. Of a patriotic turn of mind she collects war stamps as a hobby. She takes the commercial course, and her ambition is to become a secretary.

FRED TRIMBLE

Fred doesn't make much noise until he starts that "Chevy" of his. A loyal friend and a hard worker, his post-war ambition is to own a dairy farm. Being an active F.F.A. member and spending his life on his father's farm should prove beneficial to him.

ELLEN VIGNEULLE

Ellen is the attractive Student Director of the Glee Club. She has a beautiful soprano voice and has sung for several school assemblies and in all our candlelight services. Ellen also plays the piano and has a great liking for drawing and handicraft.
