CALLED INTO THE SERVICE

A number of Conrad Seniors and Juniors have left their classes this year to enter the Armed Forces. Early in September Robert Paxson left the graduating class, and Russell Welch, the 11th grade, for the Army; and in December the seniors lost their president, Mike Broujos, to the Merchant Marine Service. Quite a heavy toll of students was exacted from us in January and the succeeding months. Bob Maclary, Bob Jones, Ralph Stradley, and Bill Marsey enlisted in the Navy; Donald Barber and Francis Dugan entered the Army; and George Garber and Dick Nordeck joined the Merchant Marines. At the time that "Conradian" goes to press Walter Ellis, Clinton Townsend, Paul Hitchens, Clifford Hagy, and Fred Duck are awaiting call.

We are sorry to see our school friends leave us for war, but we wish them good luck and a safe return.
